

Things MEN Say: Good, Bad, Naughty, and Nice (A to Z)

By Tracey L. Williams

Things MEN Say is a fun, lighthearted glimpse into one woman's dating life. As a self-professed Urban Girl, Posh has no trouble finding and dating men in the city. Her wanting or keeping them is another thing. Whether right or wrong, the men in her life always seem to deliver touching, humorous, or gritty sayings worthy of journaling her experiences into this delightful tale of the Things MEN Say: Good, Bad, Naughty, and Nice (A to Z).

Can Posh survive the highs and lows of dating in the city? Things MEN Say: Good, Bad, Naughty, and Nice (A to Z) reminds us all that there's nothing too big or small that she can't handle.

"Tracey and I must be twins living a parallel existence on opposite coasts.

I found myself alternately smiling, laughing out loud and rolling my eyes at the all too familiar lines and behaviors. Gotta know when to hold and when to flee!..."

- Deborah Cooper, author of Sucka Free Love: How to Avoid Dating the Dumb, The Deceitful, The Dastardly, The Dysfunctional and The Deranged!

"...Fun, light, and most of all so true!!!"

- Janis Spindel, Serious Matchmaking Inc.

"...The situations provoking this zany assortment of lines from the guys give a glimpse into the life of the urban girl. [Tracey] makes real life funny."

- Maxine Snowden, author of Don't Fork the Peas!

Tracey L. Williams is a consummate marketing professional, business coach, and visionary who has founded multiple businesses during her career span. She holds an MBA in marketing and enjoys colliding her professional and creative worlds, with tads of wit sprinkled throughout. Tracey balances her life by employing her natural gifts and pursuing varied passions. Her book, Things MEN Say, embodies this philosophy and is truly an expression of her creativity and playful spirit. Born and raised in New York, Tracey currently lives in Washington, D.C. and classifies herself as an "urban girl impassioned with city living". Although her list keeps growing, her favorite cities include Chicago, DC, Miami, San Francisco, and of course NY.
